Fearless (Bird of Stone, #2) by Tracey Ward

Solid second book of the series. None of these are stand alone, you have to read them in order. It was more action oriented than Sleepless (Bird of Stone Book 1). There was less world building, more getting the band together and then putting on a show (or in this case, finding other 'supers' and then stopping the people creating them) I enjoyed it, but I love the first one more.

Bird of Stone Series Book Two Chapter One Nick When I was nine years old, my dad bought me a remote control helicopter. He took me to the park near our house, where he taught me how to fly it. He said I had a natural feel for flying with nerves of steel and an intuition that couldn't be taught. He told me I should be a pilot.
