4.0 out of 5 stars Past Midnight by Mara Purnhagen. Reviewed in the United Kingdom on March 18, 2011. Verified Purchase. I did, originally, only pick up this book because I received an ARC for the sequel. I hadn't previously heard much about this series as there hasn't been as much hype for this as there have other books - at least on the blogs ...

Mara Purnhagen has an envy-worthy gift for story telling, as is obvious from Past Midnight, the first title in the series. She created an interesting plot and effortlessly weaved paranormal into a contemporary setting. The science and, dare I say, logic behind the energies in this story almost made me believe in ghosts! (i'm still undecided ;)).

Abyss: Review: Past Midnight by Mara Purnhagen

— Mara Purnhagen, quote from Past Midnight “I had learned how to leave a place behind without leaving a piece of myself along with it, but more important, I had taught myself how to be detached. I never joined teams or clubs, and I doubted my picture appeared in a single yearbook.
